

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If successful, anybody that I currently have a business relationship with (e.g., your bank, credit card company, long distance carrier) will be able to call me as often as they want.

I am strongly opposed to any weakening of Indiana's law and I have informed my bank that if this petition is successful I will immediately transfer all of my accounts to another financial institution.
